Dear Mr. Hodge:

We would like to formally thank you for the wonderful work done in our kitchen. The finished product looks wonderful, and we have found ourselves wanting to spend more time cooking and relaxing in the new space you created.

Beyond the quality craftsmanship, we mostly appreciate your patience, professionalism, and attention to our needs. You understood that we had budget constraints as well as a desired timeline. You did your best to meet both, and we cannot complain. Specifically, Greg was an excellent project manager. He answered our questions and went above and beyond in his service to us. The fact that we were able to spend the holidays in our home made it the best Christmas ever.

In the future, please do not hesitate to give our name and phone number to your potential customers so that we may serve as a reference to your outstanding work.

Again, we are eternally grateful for the effort and respect you paid us with your work. We wish you, Mrs. Hodge, Greg and the rest of the Hodge Construction employees all the best.

Most sincerely,

Bryan and Alison McCullick
